GO TO CHURCH

This Sunday is Mother's Day. We urge you to pay your tribute to your mother by going to the church of your choice Sunday.

No special day in all the 365 of the year is more commendable than the annual Mother's Day. Whether your mother is living or not, you owe it to her to pay her honor on this occasion. May the observance of the day make us all more mindful of mother's love and sacrifice, and thereby help make ours a nation of stronger character.

SOLDIER'S BONUS

In the long controversary over the payment of the soldier bonus, the paper has consistently taken the position that patriotism is not a matter of dollars and cents and that no amount of cash could repay the debt owed the heroes who actually served their country in the past, or any other war. We have further felt that the government is already spending nearly one billion dollars per year on various war veterans, and considering the state of the budget the drop in the bucket compared to the alltime cost of the veterans of our wars. Therefore, our first question about the bonus has always been: "How are you going to finance it?"

We must confess, however, that we must weigh the present bonus situation from a different angle. Roosevelt cannot logically veto the bonus on the ground that the money is not available. Any president who asks for FIVE billions to spend as he sees fit cannot deny the congress the right to spend TWO billions as it sees fit.

We go further and say that if the state of the nation's credit is so much in doubt that the expenditure of an additional two billions is dangerous, then the five billion relief bill just passed was the grossest piece of legislation ever fostered upon our lawmaking body. How could one blandly tell us one week that to distribute five billions is safe and will restore prosperity, and then a week later cry that to spend two more will endanger the credit of the nation? Frankly, if recovery is to be aided by forcing a lot of money into circulation, the bonus is just as good if not a better way than the relief bill.

For reasons which it believes tenable, this paper is partial to the Patman bill, if any bonus bill is to be passed. But, being of a practical mind, we risk the guess that the question of whether or not to pay the bonus is one more of politics than of logic. Acting further upon that guess, may we venture to say that in the spending a five billions under the heading a relief, a lot of fun can be had deciding how and to whom the money goes, but in paying the bonus, there is no room for such by-products. You can't plant a row of trees across the nation with the bonus money and ballyhoo about the SAVING of the country WE DID by cutting down floods or droughts. You can't create a lot of new commissions, each claiming to SAVE the nation with the bonus money. Nor can you please a raft of disgruntled congressmen by giving them a few jobs to hand out, or a few building projects, with the bonus bill. No sir, paying the bonus is just a business matter of lining up the eligible veterans, Democrats and Republicans alike, and paying off. One party gets as much credit as another. And you needn't hold such statements against our personal party loyalty, because Hoover and Coolidge both vetoed bonus bills for the identical reasons Roosevelt will. That's the trouble with getting the bonus paid. Soldiers weren't picked according to their being good party men.

Sarah, aged 5, was reprimanded for not putting her nickel in the collection plate at church. She said: "I thought I'd buy an ice cream cone with it and him put it in the basket."

Hey You Doin'

She: "Aren't you ashamed to be begging?"

He: "Why Madam, I'm a professional coin collector."

Go to church Mother's Day.

CANDIDATES CARDS

To the Voters of Appomattox, Buckingham, Cumberland and Charlotte Counties, constituting the Eleventh State Senatorial District of Virginia:

After mature consideration, I have decided to become a candidate for the office of State Senator from the Eleventh Senatorial District of Virginia, and do herewith announce that I am a candidate for this office, subject to the Democratic Primary to be held on the sixth day of August, 1935.

It is not my idea to solicit your votes by the making of extravagant promises as to what I will be able to do for you if I am nominated and elected. I do promise, however, that if I am successful, I will impartially represent the four counties composing the district. I realize that no candidate is entitled to support unless he proposes to serve his district faithfully, honestly and to the best of his ability, and you can depend on my rendering this kind of service to our district if nominated and elected.

I will appreciate the support of the voters of this District and, if honored with it, will do by best to merit their confidence.

J. KENT EARLY.

Announcement

At the request of my friends, I have decided to become a candidate for the Legislature to represent the district composed of Appomattox and Buckingham counties, subject to the Democratic primary. I will appreciate your support.

Lady's Painful Trouble
Helped By Cardui

Why do so many women take Cardui for the relief of functional pains at monthly times? The answer is that they want results such as Mrs. Herbert W. Hunt, of Hallsville, Texas, describes. She writes: "My health wasn't good. I suffered from cramping. My pain would be so intense it would nauseate me. I would just drag around, so sluggish and 'doleas.' My mother decided to give me Cardui. I began to mend. That tired, sluggish feeling was gone and the pains disappeared. I can't praise Cardui too highly because I know it helped me." . . . If Cardui does not help YOU, consult a physician.

How your MONEY WORKS FOR YOU IN A Checking Account

When you put your money in a savings account you get interest on it. In a checking account you get service for it—and let the bank draw the interest. In return for this interest the bank gives you privileges worth far more to you than the interest itself.

When you maintain a balance commensurate with your use of your checking account privileges, the bank will be reimbursed for the expense of serving you. Otherwise, the bank may properly look to you to meet this expense.

Money in a checking account is an investment that pays you real dividends.

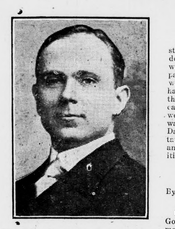
Go To Church Sunday, It's Mother's Day



By Rev. W. M. Thompson, pastor
Liberty Baptist Church

"Practically everyone acknowledges that the Church is the most valuable institution to possess without any exceptions. It is the great balance wheel of the nation, and without its stabilizing influence neither this nor any other nation could long endure. Why then is it not more generally attended and supported? The reasons given are many and various: too many Sunday pleasures, golf, automobiles, and other Sunday recreations." Without doubt these attractions draw a great many people away from the Church. The pleasures and physical benefits derived from them are obvious, while the pleasures and benefits derived from regular attendance upon Church services and participation in the same are not so obvious, but they are much more real and enduring."

A Layman.

Next Sunday is Mother's Day and we can best honor our mothers by going to the Church. Of all the institutions of mankind, none has done more for motherhood and womanhood than the church. The pagans of Christ's time despised womanhood. Christ, on the other hand, made no distinctions between the sexes. The young church soon caught His spirit in this matter and womanhood was elevated. The best way therefore to observe Mother's Day is to honor the institution that taught her, married her, buried her and elevated her to her rightful position in the world.

WHY GO TO CHURCH?

By Rev. W. K. Cunningham, pastor
Memorial Methodist Church

In the Fourth Chapter of Luke's Gospel we have the text of a sermon preached by our Lord. "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because He has anointed me to preclaim good news to the poor; He has sent me to announce release to the prisoners and recovery of sight to the blind; to free those whom tyranny has crushed, to proclaim the year of acceptance with the Lord." As we look at these words we find that His mission was constructive; but constructive in the sense that many institutions, many attitudes, many ideals would have to be destroyed before the conditions set forth in His message could be realized.

Now the Church of Christ is an organization dedicated to the realization of the ideal preached by the Master. With all its imperfections, with all its blunderings, it has in the main held fast to this ideal. And here we find the principal reason why men and women everywhere who have the welfare of the world at heart should give themselves unselfishly to the support of the institution concerned principally with the creation of a New World patterned after that world envisioned by the Master Himself.

Every Sunday literally millions of people troop to the churches. Some worship in great cathedrals, some in rough, unpainted cabins. And it is also true that other millions pay no attention to the church except to criticize it for its many shortcomings. To them it is an institution for children or for women, not worth while in the case of strong, modern-minded people. It is nothing but an opiate to put people to sleep. It costs vast sums of money to maintain, and they say it is not worth what it costs. Now what has the church to offer those millions? Why should they attend its services and assume a part of its burdens?

The main reason has already been touched upon. But there are other reasons, too. One is the advantage the church offers for common worship and mutual helpfulness. It is not easy to live in this modern world and when we try to carry the burden alone we suffer accordingly. There are temptations to be met and overcome; there is sorrow to be borne; there are suffering ones to be comforted. In common worship we get the strength to carry life's burdens; in communion with God life becomes worth living.

Then there is the advantage of adding our testimony to that of others. The forces of evil are well organized and well financed. Individuals working alone can make little impression upon them. But when numbers band themselves together to make the kingdom of God a reality the coming of the Kingdom is brought just that much nearer.

A Church is no stronger than the units which compose it. Our Lord cannot win the victory in the world without the help of human beings. If we wish to see a New Heaven and a New Earth everyone must assume his share of the responsibility. And all who hold back retard the coming of the Kingdom by just that much.

By Rev. R. E. Redding, pastor,
Presbyterian Church

What is the Church? It is an organization of divine origin, established by the Christ for the purpose of propagating spiritual truth. For this work the Holy Spirit has endowed his people with different gifts.

I Cor 12:28: And God hath set some in the church, first apostles; second prophets; third teachers for the perfecting of the church.

We should attend church:

First, because it is a divine institution. Second, its purpose is to teach a High Standard of morals founded on divine ordinances. Third, the more moral a community, the more distirable it is for a place of abode.

My observation as a missionary proved that without an exception, communities that were without churches were unsafe for the moral resident. The general state of the unchurched was unclean and vicious.

For this reason decent people prefer to live in a community where the influence of the church is felt. Although they may never attend church services or help to support them. Traveling on a ship which was wrecked on an island inhabited by a cannibal tribe was an infidel who exclaimed the church was useless. Upon being cast ashore on this island they all became alarmed from fear. They all began to climb a cliff to see what the country looked like. The infidel was first to reach the summit and he began to shout like a wild man. When his companions reached him he pointed to the steeple of a mission church rising above the tree tops and shouted: SAFE.
